Parking District Fate Tonight Awaited

Keeping Up - -

With Uplanders

By V. V. P.

THE BIG QUESTION

The Yanks or the Bums?

Little else matters this week until the big battle of bats is settled in New York.

One sports fan spent three hours yesterday and Tuesday pouring over comparative figures. The Yanks have the best batting average and a "better bench," but the Bums are really hot, he told us. That is nothing new. The Yanks are perpetually hot. A team of ball sharks can't be very cold very long and do what they have in the last few years.

It may be true though. The Bums are hot. We hope they win.

ANOTHER BIG ONE

Getting down to the local level on the big questions, nothing has so stirred many people in the community as has the issue of the parking district downtown.

One amazing feature is the wide interest in the outcome that has been shown by non-business people. Retired people residents throughout the community and citrus growers have inquired of the prospects.

Almost everyone realizes the vital importance success of the project is to the future of the downtown area. In fact, several business buildings are to be built and major real estate transactions are scheduled if the parking district is approved.

In spite of this, however, a few citizens are very active in trying to defeat the proposal.

If the basis for payment of the cost were not sound, the opposition might be justified.

While the opposition is vocal and active in trying to win support, a very safe forecast is that the parking district will be eventually approved.

THE H.S. BOND FIGURE?

Eight organizations and individuals have written letters to the Chaffey board of education about the proposed classroom bond issue.

Only one letter mentions a price, that being $10,000,000. This suggestion is from the Etiwanda Elementary school board. The other letters urge the Chaffey board to proceed with the bond issue at the earliest possible date.

Expressions are wanted by Chaffey board members — and this is an appeal to residents and leaders in this area to emphasize that the forthcoming bond issue must provide a SOLUTION to our school needs — not merely an amount to get started toward the solution.

NEWSPAPER WEEK

This is National Newspaper week with the slogan: "Freedom's Key To Better Living."

Sometime, we might really tell all about the importance of a newspaper, how hard we have to work to get it out and why everyone should read it.

As far as we are concerned, however, every week is "Newspaper Week". A community publication should, as The Upland News, face a challenge every week and its strength and community service depends upon what it does each week in reporting all the local news, in serving all people and of being a constructive leader in worthwhile things for everyone.

Since this is "our week", you might, yourself, recall what The News' service has meant to you as a family and to you as a member of the foothill community during the last 52 weeks.

In all seriousness and with great concern for the community, serve in the role as your community newspaper publisher. We liken our paper to a personal letter — telling each of you about your community, its people, organizations and changes.

Shortcomings — yes, there are plenty. And so each week provides a new opportunity to serve and to improve. Thus, we have 52 "newspaper weeks."

Home Aides Being Trained

Mrs. Keith Koehler, Red Cross Home Service committee chairman, announces a training course for home service aids, starting Friday, 7:45 p.m., in the Red Cross office. Friday's meeting will consist of a review of the course and background in the work. Future meetings will be held at the same time, Monday, Wednesday and Friday through October.

Those wishing to enroll should contact the Red Cross prior to the meeting.

Odis Baker, 709 N. Third Ave., was taken by ambulance, Saturday, to the Veterans' hospital, Long Beach, suffering from a serious kidney ailment.

New Juvenile Officer

Quesada Looks To Prevention Of Delinquency

"Prevention will be one of our greatest concerns," Feliz Quesada, newly appointed Upland city juvenile officer, said yesterday in the early stages of getting established in his new role. He has been a member of the Upland police department 11 years and was advanced to head the newly formed juvenile bureau by the city administration.

"It is important to prevent youths from getting into legal trouble and I hope to work very closely with school teachers, ministers and all other people who can help," explained the modest, hard-working officer. "I have always enjoyed working with boys and girls and it is a real thrill to direct their thoughts into constructive channels."

Mr. Quesada explained that it will take much time for the juvenile officer to really be effective.

"While the city has given some attention to the young people's troubles before, it will be necessary to proceed slowly and to get our new bureau on a solid foundation," he said. "I am going to a school for special training as a juvenile officer. I will also inspect various juvenile departments in the county to learn the best methods of record keeping and to learn all I can from the departments that now have a juvenile service."

Following his appointment to the new position, the officer conferred with City Manager Elwin Alder and Police Chief Ralph H. Palmer.

With his family, Mr. Quesada resides at 182 E. 20th St. His parents came to this area when the Uplander was very young. His father died nine years later and his mother Mrs. Eloise Quesada resides at 552 E. Park St., Ontario.

The officer speaks Spanish fluently. His easy manner with youths — as well as with adults — and his happy disposition have made him a popular officer in the community.

Site Selected For New Jr. Hi

For use in the future, a site for a new junior high school has been chosen. This site is the eight acres immediately east of the 18th St. school.

Harold W. Cook, Upland school superintendent, obtained permission on Thursday of the Upland planning commission, for location of a school there. Negotiations for purchase of the property are only tentative and definite arrangements are scheduled between the board members and the owner of the property who resides in the east.

Sen. Kuchel In Cucamonga

Senator Thos. Kuchel will be in this area for several brief stops Tuesday.

He will be at the Cucamonga Community center, San Bernardino Rd. and Hellman Ave. at 4:15 p.m. for a brief talk and to meet all interested persons, according to Mrs. Owen Feltham, vice chairman of the San Bernardino County Republican committee, who is arranging for the U. S. senator's visit to this area.

Midget Race Sunday 2 p.m.

Quarter Racing Assn. of Upland will hold it's first afternoon race in Upland Memorial Park, Oct. 7, 2 p.m. when the Firestone and Ascot Speedway Assns. will be guests of the Upland Assn. Races will be held on the first and third Sundays of the month until next summer.

Winners in the last race were Mike Ernst, Claremont, A event; Tommy Rasmussen, B event; Tony Grasso, 4, Upland, B heat; Richard Wise, Upland, B main event.

The new juvenile officer in Upland is Feliz Quesada, longtime member of the Upland police department. He assumed his duties Monday and will gradually establish a program looking to the proper guidance of youths into constructive endeavors.

C. of C. Annual Meeting Oct. 17

Annual meeting of the Upland chamber of commerce will be held Oct. 17 in the Upland Woman's clubhouse. At that time, Leslie Boyd, president, and the other new directors will be formally installed.

Ralph H. Miller, retiring president, is in charge of arrangements. A speaker and entertainment program will be presented. A review is also scheduled of the recent trip to the east by Mr. Miller, E. Tweed Stone and Geo. Brannan.

This dinner meeting is the occasion for many people in the community to unite and get a report on the civic group's activities.

Donald Carr To Safety Conference

Donald Carr, assistant mayor, will be in Sacramento this weekend, attending a safety conference called by Governor Goodwin Knight. He will miss tonight's Upland city council meeting.

He was recently delegated by the councilmen to attend the Sacramento session and among other things observe how cities man their school crossing guards and especially observe the policies of cities in dealing with crossings over freeways, such as the one at Sultana Ave.

Silver Scribe chapter of Chaparral Poets will meet Monday, 1:30 p.m. for dessert, followed by business, in the home of Mrs. Hilda Hill, 377 N. First Ave., when Mrs. Helen Shedd will be a co-hostess.

Nisbet Grove To Be Site Of New Subdivision

Conversion of the Nisbet citrus grove at Euclid Ave. and 13th St. into site for expensive houses is scheduled on completion of proceedings in the city hall.

Wm. B. Ford, Sierra Madre, has purchased 17½ acres from the Nisbet family and final approval of the proposed subdivision is scheduled in tonight's Upland city council meeting. Sellers are Mrs. T. W. Nisbet, Eugene G. Nisbet, Clara Lou Nisbet and John M. Nisbet. The Nisbet family has owned the property since 1907 and the citrus trees were set out many years prior to that.

Plans call for development of 10,000 square foot lots and the houses constructed on the property will cost upwards of $25,000, according to Howard Bowles, local realtor, who handled the transaction.

Completion of the transaction is subject to final approval of the subdivision plans, which have already been approved by the city planning commission.

First and Third Aves. and Third Pl. will be extended to connect with arteries north of 13th St. Ford Ave. will be a new street in the development, according to the plans.

The Nisbet family will retain the historic residence and 2½ acres of adjoining property as a home for members of the family now residing there.

Removal of the trees from this acreage will take from the Euclid frontage the last parcel of citrus from Foothill to 16th St.

Presbyterians Raise $180,330

J. J. Leman, campaign treasurer of the current building fund drive of the First Presbyterian church, announced Wednesday that the sum so far pledged and donated is $180,330. The quota for the drive is $250,000.

This sum, she said, will go to the association's general fund to be used for child welfare and school activities. The school scouting program for Brownies, Cubs, Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts will receive $65.40.

Marking Local Hub Caps

Putting auto license numbers on hub caps is a suggestion to prevent thefts, and Lt. John Wessely is showing Mrs. Mildred R. Puckett, city license collector, how it should be done. Police Chief Ralph H. Palmer is urging cooperation by all local auto owners in the project.

Tribute Dinners Honor Chambers On Retirement

In recognition of his long service to the community and to the municipality, Cecil Chambers was honored at two events this week.

For 21 years he has been a member of the historic Upland Volunteer Fire department and on reaching the retirement age, he was hosted by his fellow "fire eaters" in the firemen's cabin Monday evening. Ted Atwood is president of the firemen and he called upon Fire Chief Howard Paulin to express for the volunteers their esteem in having worked with Mr. Chambers. He was presented a fishing reel, a device he will frequently use.

With members of the regular fire and police departments and their wives and other guests in attendance, Mr. and Mrs. Chambers were honored Tuesday night in RoVal's. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Manley, Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Alder and Mr. and Mrs (Lucile McDonald) Robert Sappenfield.

Mr. Manley recalled interesting highlights of his recent round-the-world trip. Mr. Alder read a poem about Mr. Chambers, the poet being Chas. St. Peters.

Police Lt. John Wessely presented a wool sport shirt to the retiring fireman. As a comical gesture, Lloyd Gilmore gave to Mr. Chambers a book that ridiculed fishing. Mr. Chambers was also given the original captain,s badge that he has worn.

Mountain Ave. Zone Action Nov. 1; Read Editorial

Nov. 1 meeting of the Upland city council is the earliest possible date for further consideration of the proposed business zoning on Mountain Ave. north of Arrow Hwy. Upland city councilmen may hold a public hearing at that time. Upland city planning commission recommended the zone change to business at its meetchange to business at its meeting last Thursday.

An editorial comment on the commission's actions is on page two of section three of today's Upland News.

Eagle Scout Rank Won By 14 Year Old

Tony Stanson today has the coveted rank of Eagle scout. He was the only youth so honored in the court of honor in the Upland Elementary school auditorium Monday night and his record of service in achieving this honor was cited as one of the most outstanding in Scout circles. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Stanson, 985 W. 23rd St.

Wm. Gilliland, long an active worker in Boy Scouts, presented young Mr. Stanson and recited his steady advancement from 1952 to the highest possible Scouting award. Among other things, the 14-year old has a perfect attendance record at troop meetings and has participated in every troop activity. In every troop contest, he has finished among the top leaders and possesses 27 merit badges.

It was also pointed out, young Stanson is the first boy to win the Eagle award in the new Serrano district of the Old Baldy council and the first from his troop eight, sponsored by the Sierra Vista school P-TA. Incidentally, his father is scoutmaster of the troop and a devoted paternal leader in this activity was recognized as partly responsible for the son's achievements.

Tony is a freshman at Upland high school.

Feliz Quesada, sergeant in the Upland police department, participated in the ceremony giving the actual award to the new Eagle.

Don Priest served as master of ceremonies and Wallace Randleman, skipper of the Tiger-shark Sea Scout troop, handled the opening ceremony. George Van Tubergen, district executive, lead troop singing.

Don Gannon, activity chairman, emphasized the role the scouts can play in getting out the vote at the Nov. 3 election. Larry Bartholomew reported on the Ti-

Other awards were given by Ted Atwood, neighborhood commissioner, and Clinton Thompson, district chairman.

Eagle Scout Receives Congratulations

Sgt. Felix Quesada, Juvenile Officer of the Upland Police (left) congratulates Tony Stanson of Sierra Vista Boy Scout Troop 8, who received the Eagle Scout award Monday night in Upland Elementary school auditorium. Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Stanson, Tony's parents, and Don Priest, district advancement chairman and master of ceremonies look on. Between Sgt. Quesada and Tony is the proud head of the Eagle.

New Business Very Likely In Upland

Major developments and improvements are very likely within the Upland downtown area if the proposed parking assessment district is approved and when the four proposed parking sites are cleared ready for customers' cars.

Summarized here are the possible changes that will occur if the action is favorable:

1. McMahan Furniture Co. will erect a store building on the northeast corner of Euclid Ave. and Ninth St.

2. Upland Furniture Co. will erect a store building on the northeast corner of Euclid Ave. and C St.

3. A long-established Upland firm will conclude negotiations for the purchase of a new site and erect a new structure on a major downtown corner.

4. Plans will be made for construction of a new retail building on the south side of C Street, just west of Third Ave.

5. New location of the new Upland post office will be determined partly by the result of the parking district plan.

6. Hundreds of feet of new business frontage will be opened for development through establishment of the off-street parking lots. New investors, interested in the downtown area, have expressed their interest in new structures only if provision is made for off-street parking.

Alta Loma Votes On $125,000

Alta Loma voters will go to the polls a week from today and decide on voting $125,000 in bonds for an addition to the present elementary school building and for the purchase of an additional school site.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Due to the bonding capacity in the school district, only $35,000 in bonds can be sold during the fiscal year. If voted, the additional bonds can be sold as there is need and the school board members can do some long range planning.

A school population of 1,500 students is forecast.

People Are Nice To Mailman But Dog Bites City Carrier

One of Upland's mail men reported to The Upland News the other day on "how wonderful local people were during the excessive hot weather in providing cool drinks along the way."

Another report came to the newspaper yesterday.

Chas. Welch, city carrier here, was bitten by a household pet while delivering mail. mail.

And now Postmaster Roy Ray "asks that owners of dogs give the mailman an even break." He added:

"If a dog appears to resent the approach of your city carrier, please have your pet confined in your home or securely tied at the time delivery is made."

Mrs. Zenz Added To Junior High Teaching Staff

Due to the increase in the number of seventh grade students at the Upland junior high school, Mrs. Harold Zenz has been engaged as a new teacher. She will be on a two-third schedule, teaching English, social studies and arithmetic.

She is a former teacher here and has also substituted in other schools. She is the wife of the county's administrative officer.

City Council May Act After Public Hearing

Will the parking assessment district be approved?

That is the big question in the minds of many people in the Upland area today. Decision on the long-proposed formation of a down-town off-street parking program may be indicated at tonight's meeting of the Upland city council.

An undetermined number of formal protests from owners of business property will be filed with City Clerk Hazel Cassell early this evening. All legal protests are to be filed in writing and reasons for the protest outlined, in acordance with provisions.

Mrs. Neva Wallace, owner of property at 139 N. Second Ave., is one of the leaders in opposing the district formation. It is understood that several owners of property on Second south of Ninth St. have signed formal protests.

Since a majority of property owners signed the petition seeking the parking district, observers predict that the opposition will not be sufficient to defeat the measure at tonight's hearing or later.

At 8 p.m. in the city hall, Mayor E. Tweed Stone will call for statements from all interested persons "who favor or oppose formation of the parking district." Various individuals are expected to speak, pointing out that it is incumbent upon a business area to have adequate off-street parking. Opponents will also speak, claiming the basis for payment of the district is not equitable.

If the councilmen wish, they may act on the parking question at conclusion of the hearing. If the formal protests require time for tabulation and analysis, it may be impossible for the councilmen to act until later.

"We realize the parking proposal has not received unanimous support," Paul G. Hotel, leader in the parking movement, said yesterday. "Most persons, however, realize the vital necessity of providing parking and the outlook is very good of realization of the program."

Raymond Curran of the Los Angeles legal firm of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, which specializes in special district formation, will be present to answer legal questions. Harold Wilder, Upland city engineer, who prepared the final assessment figures and handled the final details of the proposal, will also be present to explain the engineering problem and details.

Hottel Seeks To Pay More Parking Fee

Paul G. Hottel, proprietor of the Upland Furniture Co., will ask that parking district assessments on the proposed site of his new building be greatly increased over the present proposed assessment schedule, he said ysterday.

He will make this request at the time of a "board of equalization" hearing that will be conducted by the Upland city council during the later proceedings in forming the parking assessment district.

Major basis for fixing assessments is the land valuation. His proposed site, northeast corner of Euclid Ave. and C St., at present carries a lower assessment than it will when Euclid becomes an active business thoroughfare.

Mr. Hottel expressed publicly the declaration that he wanted the parking assessment adjusted on his site to carry "the same rate that it would be if the business were already established on that corner."

Mr. Hottel has obtained a 99-year lease on the site, subject to the parking district approval, and will pay all taxes on the property.

FIRST AID COURSE

First Aid classes are being held by the Red Cross in Etiwanda school, starting Tuesday, 7:30 p.m. All scout leaders wishing to take the course are urged to attend.

Elwin Alder, city manager, speaker at the meeting, gave a review of the municipal organization, the special services of the various departments and the need for additional facilities as the population increases.

Mrs. Doris Archibald, president of the San Orco district California Federation of Business and Professional Women's Club, was a guest and presented plans and program for the fall conference of the San Orco district, to be held at Laguna Beach Oct. 20 and 21.

The club voted unanimously to nominate Mrs. E. Tweed Stone for the office of third vice president of the San Orco district Calif. Fed. B.P.W.C.

Mrs. Gloria Tristany of Glori-Ann Beauty Lounge, was introduced as a new member

Among the guests were Mrs. Alder, wife of the city manager, and judges who selected Miss Tarleton for the local honor.

WOMAN'S CLUB PRESENTING TWO OUTSTANDING ARTISTS MONDAY

Two outstanding artists will be presented following luncheon during the Upland Woman's club meeting, Tuesday, the first of the calendar year. Mrs. Earl Riggs, president, will preside at the 12:30 luncheon in the clubhouse and Mrs. H. Logan Locke, program chairman, will present Charlotte Edwards, dramatist and Lucile Gates Carr, pianist.

Charlotte Edwards brings to the stage a variety of experience in the worlds of music, writing and drama. She holds a bachelor of music degree in voice and was once state's winner of the Atwater-Kent Award.

She was woman's editor of the Rochester, N. Y. Journal for three years and continuity director of radio station WHEC, Rochester for six years. She has had a daily radio program and has written and directed dramatic plays and appeared in numerous state productions. She has had stories published in some of the top magazines. Presently she is active in Pomona in the Ebell club as program chairman.

Lucille Gates Carr, pianist, possesses brilliant technical equipment, a fine sense of tonal beauty and great powers of interpretation which have gained her recognition of critics.

She was trained by Olga Steeb, Mary Carr Moore, Henry Purmont Eames and Lee Pattison and received her masters' degree from Claremont Graduate school in 1952. She has been active in musical organizations in the Pomona area.

The program they will present will include highlights of a woman's life, according to Mrs. Locke, the things, the emotions, the people, which make it varied and valued, poetry, prose and music, both selected and written for their appearance as a charming duo.

Ideal Cleaners In Anniversary

Ideal Cleaners, 300 E. Arrow Hwy., a home concern that has thrived on keeping Uplanders spotless, is celebrating its 20th anniversary at the same location of its founding and under the same management. Mr. and Mrs. W. Merle Rash, 943 N. Second Ave. are the owners.

Mr Rash first entered the cleaning business in Upland in June, 1925 With a partner, Roy Karr, now of Redlands, he opened a cleaning plant at the present site of Ideal Cleaners. Mr. Rash sold to Mr. Karr in 1927 and then bought Mr. Karr's interests in the plant on Sept. 28, 1936.

Since becoming sole owners, Mr. and Mrs. Rash have seen the facilities of the plant triple. The original cleaning plant was 20 x 30 feet. Since 1935, five construction additions have enlarged facilities to 50 x 60 feet.

During the same period of time the plant has been twice entirely equipped with new cleaning machinery.

Upland Varsity Faces Corona; Ricci Injured

Three of the Upland high school football teams will be playing on opponents' fields today and tomorrow — and in spite of terrific opposition spirits are high among the players and fans.

One of the big casualties of last week's Upland high game at Rosemead was Bill Ricci, son of Mrs. Ralph Ricci, 1008 Olive St. He continues to be a patient in the San Antonio Community hospital, although his condition is rapidly improving and he will suffer no ill effects from the severe head blow, it is reported.

Incidentally, the Highlanders lost 18 to 0, in addition to losing the services of Ricci. Also injured were Dave Grace, a star end, and Jerry Reed, a fighting guard.

With the defeat over and bruises on the mend, Coach Jerry Bell and his squad are ready for Corona there at 8 p.m. tomorrow. The B team also plays at Corona in a 6 p.m. clash. These games will be on the Corona high school field.

Replacements will take over on Bell's squad for the injured players and the outlook is fair for Upland wins in the Corona clashes.

Sullivan Rites Here Saturday

There will be a requiem mass, celebrated by Rev. Michael J. Browne in St. Joseph's church, Saturday, 9 a.m., for Mrs. Lillian B. Sullivan, Chicago, Ill., who died recently in that city.

The remains are being accompanied to Upland by her son, Roger T. Sullivan.

Mrs. Sullivan is the widow of Thomas D. Sullivan, who died here in 1951, when the couple was wintering at Upland Inn. The Sullivans have a number of friends and former business associates in this area.

Stone Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

GOP Workers Form New Clubs

Mrs. Lovon Phillips, chairman of San Bernardino County Federation of Republican Women and Mrs. Thos. Parker, president of the local republican women's club, went to Chino Monday night where they organized a Republican Women's club at the request of Mrs. Paul Clark, precinct chairman, Chino, and Mrs. Adolph Whitney, Riverside Dr., who was the hostess.

This is the third GOP club at which the two have officiated in forming or re-activating. The two others were in Rialto and Trona.

Kiwanis Elects John Nicholson

John Nicholson was elected president of the Upland Kiwanis club at a meeting in Sycamore Inn, Tuesday noon. Other elected officers, who will take office, Jan. 1, are Alexander McLeish, vice-president; Donald A. Gannon, second vice president, and Philip Born, secretary-treasurer. New directors will be Ray Anderson, Oren Decker, Robt. P. Miller, Leslie Standlea, George L. Brannan, James Fero, and Allen Howell.

The Rev. Wm. E. Thompson is the retiring president.

Too often news is not what happened, but what people think has happened.

Rotary Head Speaks Here

Dee C. Essley, Rotary club district governor, spoke at the Upland Rotary club meeting at noon yesterday. Later, he conferred with all officers and committee chairmen relative to the local activities.

A tea honoring Mrs. Essley was held in the home of Mrs. Everett Henry, San Antonio heights, yesterday afternoon, with wives of the Upland club members in attendance. Mrs. Floyd Allen was a co-hostess for the tea.

Mr. Essley is head of the district in which there are 55 Rotary clubs.

came the magic that made possible so wonderfully different a Ford. In the toughest on-the-road tests ever given to a car, this "Inner Ford" demonstrated that a '57 Ford rides you sweet and low . . . that it takes the bumps without a bobble, the curves without the pitch . . . and, that in power, it "takes nothing from nobody!" Nothing on wheels hurries, handles or holds up like a Ford!

A new kind of FORD with the mark of tomorrow

You're in for a thrill when you see this new knock-out named Ford! But save your superlatives till you drive it! That's where the fun really starts.

It's fun just knowing that others who see you wish they were you. For you're commanding the longest, lowest, heaviest, biggest car ever to sport such a low price tag. There's head room to spare for a new fall bonnet . . . stretch-out space for a "Daddy Longlegs."

You'll find that the tough and ready new "Inner Ford" is built to take the roughest road you'll care to travel. New outboard rear springs and ball-joint front suspension let Ford take the turns without the tilt. New swept-back control arms help take bounce out of bumps.

Best of all, Fords library-like quiet is built in. And the new "Inner Ford" is why. For never before in Ford's field has there been a body with so much extra bracing so firmly anchored to its foundation. And you can choose from three big Silver Anniversary V-8's with up to 245 horsepower. There's also a new Mileage Maker Six with 144 horsepower, the most modern Six in the industry.

You can pick your Ford tailored to your desires and your budget, too! Choose from nine Fairlane or Fairlane 500 models or from five Custom or Custom 300 models. Or take your pick from Ford's five longer, lower, new station wagons. Whichever model you select, you'll get a car that's been re-invented from the wheels up!

So there's the new kind of Ford. Big! Gracious! Spacious! A luxury car true—but one that any new-car buyer can easily afford. Come in! See what wonder-cars you can buy now at low Ford prices.

Water Taken To High Spot In Alta Loma

Colorado river water is today being delivered to the Andrey Tolstoy ranch, 96881 Hillside Dr, high up next to the Alta Loma foothills, by the Cucamonga Water district, Norman Hixson, manager, reported. Highest point of the new water delivery is at a 2,300 foot elevation.

This is one of several delivery points for the new source of water in Cucamonga and Alta Loma. The Hermosa Water Co. has the distinction of being the first customer for the Colorado river water through the district agency. Iomasa Water Co. is another customer.

At an early date, all the automatic equipment for delivery and control of the outlets will be in operation. Mr. Hixson said that with the first rains, it will be unnecessary to use the Colorado water.

"By next spring when the irrigation season starts, we will be ready to serve all persons who want service," Mr. Hixson said.

A raise in pay, voluntarily granted by an employer is one of the rarities of economics and, largely explains organized labor.

Mrs. Zimmerman Breaks Ground For Cucamonga School

Hundreds of Cucamonga District school children formed a half circle on the site of the new school to watch Mrs. Nellie Zimmerman, clerk of the school board and pioneer of the district (she attended the one room district school as a child) break ground for the new school. Others in the picture with her are Guy Daniel; Col. C. Burton Thrall; Mrs. Theresa M. Stafford, superintendent; George Partridge, board president; Mrs. Marie Grecco, trustee and Ralph Bullock, principal. Mrs. Zimmerman is the trustee with the longest tenure of service on the board.

Historic Event As Ground Is Broken For New School

Ground breaking for the new Cucamonga District school was given the ceremony of an historic occasion Thursday afternoon when hundreds of people gathered to watch Mrs. Millie A. Zimmerman, clerk of the board of trustees, spade up a generous shovel of earth at the new site on Archibald Ave.

Officials, representatives of community organizations and students, on hand for the event listened to preliminary speeches in the shade of tall eucalyptus trees across the street, moving to the cleared site, in the hot sun, for the actual breaking of ground.

BRIEF PROGRAM

On hand to greet guests and preside at the ceremony were Mrs. Theresa M. Stafford, superintendent and Ralph Bullock, principal. The Rev. H. W. Stockton gave the invocation after the flag salute. Geo. Scott, seventh grade teacher, led the singing and James Morris, a student gave an historical sketch of Cucamonga. All joined in singing patriotic songs.

Mr. Bullock introduced George Partridge, president of the school board; Mrs. Zimmerman and Mrs. Marie Grecco, trustees; Col. C. Burton Thrall, superintendent of county schools and Guy Dan- gave the invocation after the flag Lloyd Neely, P-T A president; Anthony Blatnick, Cucamonga postmaster; Leo Ramirez, representing Progisistas, Clifford Chappel, Cucamonga Water Co. and the Cucamonga Service club; Mrs. Floyd Allen, Upland Assistance League; Bob Jennings and Allen Stevens of the Y.M.C.A.

STARTED IN 1873

Col. Thrall told of the growth of the district since 1873 when the first school was established with 11 students at an annual cost of $220. He said it was not until 1890 that the school board acquired property which was valued at $5,480. Until that time school had been held in rented premises. It was a big day, another historic occasion in 1890 when the district had its first lot and building.

He warned that growth in Cucamonga, which had not been spectacular in the past was due for a sharp increase. In 1933 there were only 111 students. This had increased to 515 students last year. The new building was being started "none too soon", he said.

In introducing Mrs. Zimmerman, Mr. Bullock told of her attendance in Cucamonga District school as a child. At that time the school was in a rented upper story.

Woman's Club Reception At Cucamonga

Cucamonga-Alta Loma Woman's club will start the fall season with a reception in the new Community center, 9324 San Bernardino Rd., Tuesday, 2 to 4 p.m., Mrs. Arthur Allen, president announced.

Mrs. J. J. H. Smith, a past president of the San Bernardino County Federation will speak on the status of women behind the iron curtain.

Hostesses will be Mmes. Marvin Wangler, Victor Arias, Rose DeCarlo, Ted Vath, Delores Stone and Miss Ruth Milliken.

Etiwanda Ave. To Get Signals

Automatic traffic signals are to be placed on Foothill Blvd. at Etiwanda Ave., bids for the work to be opened Nov. 1. Signals will also be placed on Foothill at Citrus Ave., Fontana.

The boulevard will be widened for approximately 1,000 feet both east and west to provide four 12-foot lanes with 8-foot shoulders and a 22-foot median, in place of the existing one 11-foot and one 10-foot lane in each direction.

A three phase full traffic actuated signal system will be installed. Two 30-foot steel standards will provide highway lighting at each of these intersections.

Clyde V. Kane, district engineer, said improvements should permit through traffic on both Etiwanda and Citrus to safely cross Foothill, and at the same time, enable those traveling on U. S. 66 to make left-hand turns without conflict with opposing traffic.

Alta Loma P-TA Wants Fathers To Join Sessions

In hopes of having more fathers attend meetings the Alta Loma P-T A board has decided to have more educational programs in the future. This question, along with the coming bond election on Oct. 11, a rummage sale and the annual harvest dinner, Oct. 19, were discussed at a recent board meeting in the home of Mrs. Lloyd Guinn, president.

Mrs. H. J. Kilmurray read the new bylaws.

Named to fill vacancies on the board were Mrs. Myrta Crilly, first vice president; Robert Zanin, second vice pesident and Mrs. Harold Hamner, magazine chairman.

Mrs. Claude Reaves and Mrs. Donald Clayton are heading the committee in charge of the membership drive which started Sept. 24 and ends this week. Children in all grades participated with a poster contest with Donald Chilcott, Norman Dennis and Thorsen Jones winning first prize; Sandra Hill, second prize and Emily Stoebe, third prize.

Announcement was made that Mental health will be the major subject for the parent education program. Board meetings for the remainder of the year will be held the last Tuesday of each month.

Upland P-TA Tuesday Night

Upland Elementary P-TA. will hold the first meeting of this year in the auditorium, Tuesday, 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Leonard C. Brown, president, urges all parents and members to attend.

The agenda includes placing of the budget before members for approval, carnival plans and a report on the current membership drive.

Giant Grizzly, Rare Dall Ram, Belcher Trophies

John C. Belcher, 221 E. 11th St., Upland's famed big game hunter, has returned from his latest expedition which took him by air to the Slava River in the Wrangell mountains, 300 miles inside the coast of Alaska, north east of Anchorage. There were seven hunters and seven guides in the camp, which moved to various locations in the area.

Prime purpose of the hunt, a grizzly, was accomplished by Mr. Belcher, who reports it was the most thrilling experience in his big game hunting career.

His grizzly, a black and brown, with a weight of more than 600 pounds, six feet, eight inches in height, will be entered by the hunter in the North American Big Game trophy contest.

This kill is all the more thrilling to the hunter because it completes his list of big game trophies. Taking it was an exciting and dramatic venture. He reports that as he and his guide moved in, unable to see the quarry, it suddenly rose up in the brush, towering above the blueberries on which it had been feasting. At the same time three grizzlies, all full grown, a mother and two two year old cubs came out of the brush within 100 feet of them. They didn't attack. A hunter is allowed only one grizzly, Mr. Belcher reports, but had they attacked rather than departed he and the guide might have had a problem in dispatching them all.

His second and most important trophy of the expedition was a snow white Dall ram with 39 inch full curled horns. This specie is common to the area where he was hunting and was taken in the mountains. This is the third variety of ram he has taken.

Contrary to popular conception, today's hunter is not overly burdened with equipment. Because air freight is expensive Mr. Belcher's only weapon on the hunt was a 300 Magnum rifle. He was gone from Aug. 11 to Sept. 25.

Mr. Belcher has his name in to hunt the desert big horn. A rare specie, only 20 hunters are licensed to take it annually. He will know if he is to be one of the lucky ones Oct. 20. If so, he'll be off again, this time bound for the Arizona desert.

Maggi's Owner Chose Area For Specialty Shop

ALLEN MAGDOVITZ

Most recent newcomer to this area's mercantile field is Allen A. Magdovitz, a native of Kane, Pa., who recently purchased and is now operating Maggi's, the women's specialty shop formerly known as Henry's.

Mr. Magdovitz was graduated from Columbia Military Academy, Columbia, Tenn. Upon graduation he then attended the University of Arizona where he was graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration, majoring in advertising. While in Tucson he worked for the College Shop, one of the state's leading women's specialty shops.

He spent two years on active duty with the U. S. Air Force as a communications officer. After his discharge, Mr. Magdovitz managed a specialty shop in El Cajon, Calif. His next move was to Los Angeles where he advanced to become assistant buyer for the May Co. At this time he became interested in operating his own shop. After looking over many areas in the Southland he decided the ideal spot was in this area and he was delighted when he spotted the location for Maggi's, at 115 N. Euclid Ave., Ontario, which he is now occupying.

Scout Patrol Fifth In Fair Finals

Placing fifth in the finals of the Boy Scout Patrol contest in the Los Angeles county fair finals was the Eagle patrol of Upland troop No. 8. Fifty-seven of the top patrols in Southern California were invited to participate with the few best groups invited to return for the finals last weekend. The local troop was invited for the finals.

Franklin Stanson, scoutmaster, said the seven patrols in the finals represented the best Boy Scouts in Southern California. The top four patrols received trophies with Upland getting a pennant. The hard working Scout leader commended the local Scouts and praised the manner in honoring the top southland scouts.

Selfishness is at the bottom of most human conflicts; you cannot reform your neighbors but you can work on yourself.

Many features have been added to these homes such as intercom systems, built-in range, imported wallpapers, large window walls with glass doors, shuttered interior doors, forced heating, fireplaces, besides 1400 square feet of living area including four bedrooms and two baths, or three bedrooms and den, with two baths.

Future P-TA Gals and Sky Poster

Three future P-TA members, left to right, Jeanne Fisher, Donna Johnson and Linda Bright of Upland Elementary school P-TA, inspect sky poster which will mark each room's progress in the current drive for parent membership in the P-TA.

Legion Dance For Halloween

Upland American Legion plans a busy calendar of events for the coming weeks. With a successful smoker enjoyed in the clubhouse Friday, next on the list is a Halloween dance, Oct. 27 when there will be prizes for best costumes worn by spooks, witches and goblins.

The annual Thanksgiving turkey shoot is slated for Nov. 10, 11 and 12.

P-TA Drive Rocket Race

Upland Elementary school P-TA. membership drive got off to a flying start, Monday, with a lively competition between classrooms, according to Mrs. Richard Hill, membership chairman.

Featured in the competition is a colorful sky poster in the main hall on which progress of each class will be marked by rockets as the race continues for the first class to achieve 100 percent membership of parents. Other sky posters in each room will feature the names of children turning in names of members they add to the P-TA. roll.

Mrs. Hill explained that parents need only join once to be counted for each of their children in the school. In order to gain membership both parents, if both are with the children, must join. Legal guardians or other relatives are also eligible.

This year's student enrollment in Upland Elementary is 617 students.

Students Start Driver Training

Instructing in the driver education and new driver training course at Upland High school are Lloyd Conner and Elliot Wier. The course is divided into two sections with education in the classroom and driving training behind the wheel.

There is a waiting list which will be given instruction when another car is available.

Manleys Home From 53,000 Mile Tour

In 32 countries on a 53,000 mile trip, Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Manley are home today at 890 N. Euclid Ave. They left Feb. 26 on a tour, mileage of which equalled twice the distance around the world.

"We didn't make it twice around the world but we did go up and down and across several countries several times," observed the former city manager, who has really taken up the travel hobby after many years in the city hall.

"Frankly," he recommended, "it might have been a little too long for the best enjoyment. It might have been divided into two sections; in India and the far east to see how people live so differently than we do and to Europe and other countries for a nice, enjoyable vacation."

Accustomed to do a lot of figuring, Mr. Manley, kept a detailed account of his travel mileage as follows: 800 miles by train; 3,200 miles by bus and auto and 41,000 miles by airplane.

"In every country, there is adequate provision for airplanes and many people travel that way, even in the poorer countries," he said. "Oftentimes, the only people on the plane who could speak English were the crew members."

Mr. Manley became quite fluent with the Spanish language prior to their departure. "In Spain, they thought we were from Mexico because I had an accent," he observed.

Only one day in Europe did they have trouble making people understand and that is because they wanted ham and eggs for breakfast.

In Switzerland they rented a Volkswagon for a jaunt from Lucerne to Geneva.

"We left Geneva early in the morning, planning to stop in some of the small communities for breakfast," he related. "No one could understand us and it was 11 o'clock before we got what we wanted."

European countries were described as highly desirable for vacationers with conditions excellent and the people eager to serve the tourists.

"In Europe especially, the citizens are very interested in outcome of the November elections," Mr. Manley reported. "They inquire as to the possible outcome and seem to be concerned about our politics."

The Uplanders came in contact with a few people who expressed strong criticism of the Russians but in general the problem of the east vs. the west was not commonly discussed.

Hint: If you want to see your name in print, print it yourself.

The trouble with most minds is that they are unused.

People who are always tired should take a vacation.

Many Receive Scout Awards

Star, Life and Merit badges were presented to scores of Boy Scouts at the Court of Honor, Serrano district, held in the Upland Elementary school auditorium, Monday night. Plane Reveals Engagements

Two couples at Upland college chose a novel method of announcing their engagements when a Piper Cub plane flew over the grounds to drop tiny parachutes to which were attached the important announcements. To set the mood, appropriate music was played on the college loud speaker system.

The engaged couples are Miss Karen Strickland and Raymond E. Buckwalter and Miss Esther Buckwalter and Jess Ginder.

Miss Strickland is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville E. Strickland, 1291 Oaks Ave., Ontario and Mr. Buckwalter's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Amos H. Buckwalter, 953 W. Arrow Hwy. They are also the parents of Esther Buckwalter

Mr. Ginder is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ginder, Manheim, Pa. He and his fiancee plan to be married next summer.

Mr. Buckwalter and his fiancee have set no date for their marriage.

Others attending were Eileen Smith, Dianne Bangle, Sherry Maxwell, Carol Burge, Elveda Horsch, Carolyn Reynolds, Connie Helm, Sandra Dyer, Miriam Minor, Karen Freeman, Helen McNall, Myrna Hughes, Carol Ann Murray, Pat Gattey, Lee Crandle, Don Bangle, Lon Hadwin, Nancy Habegger and Miss Marjorie Pleasant, sponsor.

Final Decision On Mountain Ave. Business Site Up To City Council November 1

City Planners Divided In Big Business Plan

Wide interest is being shown today in the proposed establishment on Mountain Ave. north of Arrow Hwy. of a huge shopping center, following the Upland planning commission approval of the zone change for the project. A 4 to 2 vote of the commissioners Thursday night gave the applicants approval in their first step in the proceedings.

Another public hearing on the proposal will be held by the Upland city council in usual observance of the routine. Nov. 1 is the likely date for this public hearing.

If the zone change is given approval by the council, the developers, David Seares and Robt. Sherwood of Upland and Chas. Latimer of Ontario, have given the assurance that top quality stores will be located on 20 acres and that an investment of 1½ million dollars will be made. Stanford Shaw, Ontario attorney, presented the proposal during a lenghty hearing

Owners of poultry plants west of the site objected to the application and John B. Atwood, Upland merchant, said the approval would adversely affect the proposed downtown parking assessment district.

On the first motion to approve the application, the vote was a tie, three to three, Voting yes were Dr. Kenneth Wilcox, a new commissioner, Wm. Kistinger and Chairman Geo. Whitney. On the "no" side were Ralph W. Hunt, Mrs. Dorothy Gardner and Dr. Henry G. Brubaker.

In fairly quick succession, two other motions were made. Dr. Wilcox sponsored a motion to grant business on the east side of Mountain. The applicants amended their request to get business on the west side if only one parcel were appoved. This amendment was accepted and the business site was approved as follows: yes — Dr. Wilcox, Mr. Kistinger, Dr. Brubaker and Mr. Whitney; no — Mrs. Gardner and Mr. Hunt.

With this approval in the records, Mrs. Gardner then sponsored a motion to also include the east side of Mountain and this was approved on a four to two vote. Voting no were Dr. Brubaker and Mr. Hunt.

Mr. Hunt expressed the belief the development was premature, too large for the surrounding residential area. These views received the support of Simon Eisner, planning consultant, and by some other members of the commission. Mr. Eisner said that a 10-acre development would be more reasonable.

Mr. Eisner also pointed out this would require modification of the master plan. He expressed the belief "a center of this kind is seldom larger than 10 acres" and quoted figures on the purchasing power required to suppot such a development. He also observed "that seldom is such an area split in the middle by a major highway."

LaVerne Leman, owner of the property at the southwest corner of Mountain and Arrow Hwy., spoke for the zone change.

Robert Metzger, 1370 W. Arrow Hwy, and G. H. Ellerbeck, Central Ave., spoke against the application. Don Gannon, a residential developer on a site just east of the proposed commercial center, expressed no opinion on the proposal, except asking for a buffer strip.

Church Project Given Delay

Fate of the proposed plan for a church at the southwest corner of San Antonio Ave. and W. 11th St. will be decided at the meeting of the Upland city planning commission Oct. 25, although many of the details were discussed at Thursday night's meeting.

A. R. Allred, head of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, the applicant, explained the plan for the new building on an 80 foot by 322 foot lot, improvements to cost $150,000.

Nearby residents who objected to the application were Robt. Theall, Richard Tunnel and Herbert Mack. Roderick Dungan, attorney, said he represented 43 residents who objected to the development because of the resulting traffic.

Simon Eisner, planning consultant, observed the commission members "must determine if this is a proper location for a church". He said the church is not necessarily a neighborhood function. He explained, however, that proper provision can be made to regulate the surrounding activity, through placing of walls completely around the site, landscaping, setbacks, lighting control and regulation of exits and entrances.

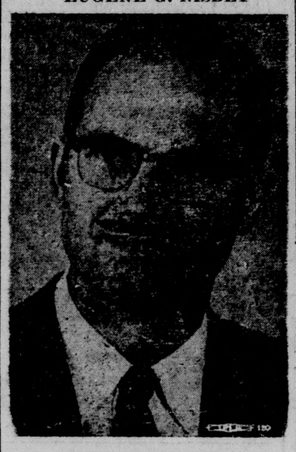

An agreement relative to the improvements will be discussed by the applicant and the city's planning department between now and Oct. 25.

An application for a new Foursquare church on W. Eighth St. was delayed for discussion until Oct. 25 since there was no plot plan. The Rev. Dale Reynolds, minister, was present at the meeting.

Assembly Candidates Are Busy

EUGENE G. NISBET

RAY W. FERGUSON

One of the highlights in the political campaigning of the month will concern Assemblyman Eugene G. Nisbet and his Republican opponent Ray Fergusn.

The local contest for assemblyman from this district will be decided in the November election. Mr. Nisbet, of Upland, who has served two years in Sacramento, is up for reelection. He served many years on the Upland city council and was mayor during most of his long public service here.

First elected to the assembly in 1954, Mr. Nisbet was renominated in the June primaries. While he was a candidate on both party tickets he received only the Democratic nomination.

Mr. Ferguson of Ontario was the Republican nominee and received wide support in the June primaries. He opposed Mr. Nisbet two years ago. He has been very active in the community for many years and is the recognized leader in may projects in the area.

Whether Mr. Ferguson has gained with the voters in his race with Mr. Nisbet is uncertain. Some observers believe he is more widely received now than in June and than he was two years ago.

A hard-driving campaign is being conducted by both of the men, each attending many political and public meetings and each doing much personal campaigning in getting to know the voters.

It is recognized, however, that Mr. Nisbet has the edge in the race because of his incumbency and because of his service as an Upland city councilman and as an assemblyman.

On the other hand, Mr. Ferguson's general support is reportedly increasing and a close contest is forecast by some observers next month.

Longer . . Lower . . Bigger

This brilliant new automotive package is bigger, easier to enter, roomier than ever. Yet it's lower . . . so low that a man of average height can rest his elbows comfortably on its top! and longer . . you've never seen such a long car in Ford's field. And sweeter . . . every graceful contour of its sculptered-in-steel body says, "Let's go!"

Ford engineers reinvented the automobile. They developed a revolutionary contoured frame . . . a built-for-keeps body . . . a new type of low-slung drive . . . a new level-ride suspension . . . a new higher compression engine. These are but a few of the things in this new kind of Ford that let you ride silent, solid and secure.

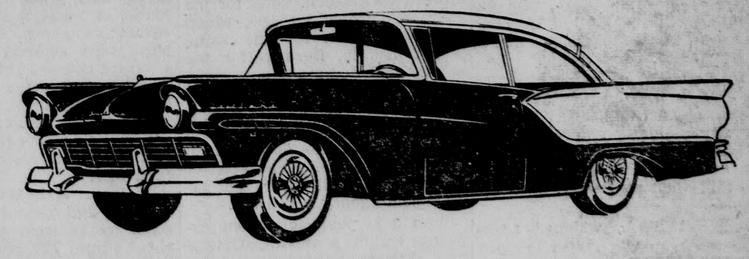

And Ford's the only low-priced car to bring you a choice of two new, bigger car sizes . . . plus an all-new longer, lower line of station wagons.

A complete new kind of Ford for '57 . . . a heavier, road-hugging addition to the Ford line . . . the Fairlane 500 series! Every one of these cars is so big, so new, so different, you'll hardly believe your eyes. It's the luxury-car in the low-priced field. It brings you more room than ever before . . . nearly 17½ feet long, yet only a scant 4⅔ feet high! Lowness is only one appearance point that makes the Fairlane 500's look much higher-priced than they are. A durable super enamel is used so that a '57 Ford will stay beautiful longer.

Why So Fast In Zoning Mountain Avenue For Business ?

Foundation of the city's strong master zoning plan was seriously weakened in rather fast action by the Upland planing commission the other night.

Usually a deliberate conservative body, with an outstanding record of planning well for the community, the plan-commission took less than an hour the other night to place 20 acres of citrus groves along Mountain Ave. north of Arrow Hwy. in the business zone.

An established zoning policy is highly important in providing for the best possible development of this community. We had that policy — until last Thursday when four members of the commission ignored the advice of City Planning Consultant Simon Eisner, ignored what had previously been planned in the present zoning map and within a few minutes approved a major business area.

One of the basic concepts in municipal planning here, is the encouragement of growth from the center outward. Thus, residential development follows a logical plan, rather than a helter-skelter placing of new subdivisions in all parts of our 12 square mile community. Likewise, with business development — the best plan and the most logical plan — is to grow from the center outward.

Outlying business centers are certain — and provision for them has been made already in the master zoning plan.

Luckily, the same zone request is very likely to come before the Upland city council Nov. 1. At that time, we might hope for a denial of the city planners' recommendation.

"Why did they act so speedily on such a major item?" is a question asked about the commissioners by many local people. No doubt, they had very good reasons but most observers cannot understand what they might be. The need for speedy action seems to be lacking.

Surely, there is no demand for business services on Mountain Ave., where there are very few houses and where citrus property now more than ever, will be too high to attract subdividers. The applicants have no specific business firms that have signed commitments. Actually, the entire project is one of speculation — and that is a very poor basis for a zone change.

Ralph A. Hunt and Dr. Brubaker voted "No" on the zone change and they are to be commended for their persistence against a wave of approval. In fact, we have very high regard for all the commissioners and we appreciate their difficult role serving the community. Very likely in their more deliberate moments they realize such hasty action was unnecessary.

And so we look to the city council to give the proposal their usual deliberate consideration.

Many Good Reasons For Ike

Thomas E. Dewey is a Republican and it might be expected he would urge the reelection of President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

We commend to everyone, the reasons why he thinks the president should be reelected:

"The one man who towers over all the world today is Dwight Eisenhower. He is known personally and beloved by the leaders of the free world. He is known and profoundly respected by the leaders of the slave world.

"So long as he is president, no trigger-happy dictator is going to risk a war with the United States.

"Has Mr. Stevenson ever done anything in his life that gives any reason to believe that he might equal the stature of President Eisenhower?

"As Mr. Stevenson has no record of performance in foreign affairs, we can only rely on his words and in these we find him making some astonishing and dangerous statements. For example, he has suggested the possibility that we can maintain the military force we need without the draft."

Time Passes

15 Years Ago

Confusion in house numbers was to be speedily cleared up with complete renumbering of Euclid Ave., and on the thoroughfares to the west.

After being closed for the summer, mountains and canyons were open to hunters and fishermen and plans were being made by sportsmen for many hunting and fishing expeditions.

Mrs. Wallace Leaper, former resident, won a $15,000 award in a traffic suit in San Diego.

Slight damage to a Pacific Electric truck on the San Antonio Heights route occurred when the truck's ignition started a fire.

Harold W. Cook was named to the Upland Library board, replacing Charles Ruedy, who resigned.

Foothill Blvd., widened as a four lane highway, was to open for traffic following an inspection by city officials and state engineers.

San Bernardino was to take over 10th St. and it was to be designated Arrow Hwy. Widening was to start within a few weeks.

More than 20 pepper trees and scores of grevilleas were destroyed by the worst wind storm in memory that swept from the north and devastated Euclid Ave. Trees littered the avenue and gardens and more than 400 phones were put out and electric power lines were cut.

Orange and lemon crop damage was serious in Alta Loma. Eastward, blowing sand cut visibility to zero. Road crews were kept busy all night clearing roads and assisting stalled motorists.

"My Country's Need Shall Control My Deeds," a logan devised by Charles McCrea, 492 N. Eighth Ave., was receiving national radio recognition. He had submitted the watchwords in a radio competition.

With building permits for September totaling $14,057, a trend upward was shown. Total for the year was nearly $150,000, which was more than for the same period in 1940. Permits for the months included many new roofs.

The U. S. War Dept. was studying the area north of 26th St. for possible location of the proposed San Antonio flood control dam. It was believed no activity would start until after the national emergency was over.

With a 24 year agreement expiring within a month, Upland and Ontario councilmen were meeting to discuss further joint participation in sewage problems. In general discussions were slanted toward a larger plant.

American Fruit Growers Alta Loma plant was starting an $18,000 addition.

E. E. Hawthorne was appointed chairman of a committee on re-employment to aid rehabilitation of men returning to civilian life from the armed services.

Will Write Of Alaskan Vacation

Shown above is the Mendenhall glacier in Alaska, one of the features about which Dr. Latimer will write in his column in The Upland News. Dr. and Mrs. Latimer enjoyed a vacation in the northern vacationland. His column today introduces his series on his recent tour.

Dr. James Latimer

This Life We Live

IN DEEP APPRECIATION:

September was a good month despite that warm breeze that came in from the desert at times. The schools have taken over the care of our children and things are quieter on Our Street. Vacations also are things of the past and we can now begin to plan for the coming days. For these things and more we are glad.

In speaking of vacations, did you notice how our friends are anxious to tell us of their wonderful times but seem not to be interested in anything we are anxious to tell. They are full of the joys of those days away from home and have kept records also, even to the miles per gallon given by that splendid new car. They made our meagre 6360 miles seem small indeed in comparison with their 8800 or the 12348 miles reported. Yet we are here again with July and August back of us, with their days of change and the fine fellowship of friends. And since no one seemed much interested in what my wife and I did, I shall have to write about it to see if you are interested.

You good people have an advantage over me, for you do not have to read what I write. But I need to meet that deadline of Tuesday morning or be called up. I have learned that I was very ignorant on Alaska. My mind was opened and I learned some things. For example, How did Juneau get its name? What is the meaning of the Totem Poles? or, Why do glaciers die? These and more intrigued me, and I tried to find the answers. They held my attention and contributed much to the summer trip north.

So if you are interested in learning why the Alaska Cruise held my attention and added much to the pleasure of our summer days, just give me a few minutes per week for a while. It was a good show and contributed much toward a profitable vacation. I was interested also to learn how the Alaska industries had changed from fishing to mining, and from mining to lumber and pulp, and how changes are still being made. Fishing villages of sixty years ago are thriving cities now and some active cities of the Gold Rush Days are ghost towns now.

For the next few weeks I am wishing for you some happy minutes of reading on Thursday mornings. Next week I want to talk about The Alaska Pan Handle.

Yesterday Today and Tomorrow

By GERRY McGEER

People have told me, and I've suspected it, but never was the fact that Americans work too hard, too long in each day, brought home than in listening to a friend just returned from a summer in Paris.

She'd like nothing better than to go right back there, or as an alternative, to have life on this continent change its hectic pattern.

In the first place she says despite the fact that people over there are living well and dressing well they have a far more leisurely life.

Lunch was something to get used to in Paris. It consisted of about nine courses. Much more formidable than it sounds because after the entree, soup salad that preceded the main course of meat or fish with two vegetables about three vegetables were served, each as a separate course. Then of course, there was dessert. And returning to vegetables, there were for instance about nine different varieties of cabbage and a different, delicious way to cook each one!

Madame and Messieur lunch leisurely and rest till about 3 p.m. when he returns to work until about 6 p.m. The evening meal is pretty much a repetition of lunch.

My friend insists that this is the pattern of living and applies to wage earners as well as executive and professional families.

They have time and use it to enjoy life. "They think we are crazy on this continent," she said and after sampling Parisien life I'm inclined to agree with them."

Food was excellent and there was a greater variety of vegetables than in California at no higher cost. Cheeses were out of this world and of course the cooking was wonderful.

With friends and connections in the French capital she was able to live as Parisiens do.

One thing surprised her. The last two wars, in which the French have lost so much, seem to have caused a revolution in French thinking. They aren't the thrifty souls they used to be. Traffic in Paris was reputed to be hazardous is more so today. Now the hazards are country wide. Practically every farmer drives a little French Renault or Citroen with the gay hair-rising abandon characteristic of the gallic temperament. Life is never dull.

The better restaurants are expensive. Lunch costs about $5. or $6. They do a thriving business, not with tourists, but with French. "I couldn't understand how they could afford it and I believe their philosophy today is to spend and enjoy rather than save and have it taken away as happened twice in the lives of many French."

Her trip included a stay in London where she found the people very keen to talk about conditions there. She said she bought many small purchases just to get the people talking. On one occasion she bought a fruit peeler to present to the bachelor girl she was visiting. She asked first if the shop had one.

"Had them since I was a boy," the shopkeeper said. She bought it and was leaving the store when he called her.

"You left or right handed," he said. She had thought she had short changed him or he'd miscounted the change. But no it was something else.

"You right or left handed", he said, as she continued to look puzzled.

"Why right handed." "That's fine," he said, "that peeler will do you !"

I told her that she couldn't have had a more typical English experience.

She said that Americans are more popular in France today than they were a few years ago. They are more popular than the British. There is a mounting fear and returning distrust of Germany and many French people told her history was repeating itself in that country with growing nationalism and militarism.

PASADENA PLAYHOUSE

Pasadena Playnouse will start its 40th year of stage productions Oct. 4 when it reopens with "Two Adams for Eve", a gay comedy with music and dancing, in its completely redecorated auditorium.

Four stars are featured in the show. They are Marc Platt, famed New York actor-dancer; Betty Benson, the ingenue lead in the recent Greek Theater production of "The Student Prince"; and the veteran comedians, Marjorie Bennett and El Brendel, the "yumping yiminy Swede".

Sharps and Flats

By Chuck Barlow

One of the most modest cops I've ever known, Felix Quesada, is to be our new juvenile officer. He has been upped in grade and elevated to this position in a move by the city council that is to be commended.

Felix has been writing tickets around Upland for 10 years. In that time he has worn out a lot of pencils and absorbed a lot of cussins. He can flash that disarming smile and continue to write while on the receiving end of the most blistering tirade. His patience is phenomenal.

He will be working without the benefit of two things which kept juvenile delinquency at a minimum during my youth. The psychology of a woodshed close to the backporch and a razor strop hanging beneath the mirror deterred many of my youthful projects.

Chores to keep a boy busy, a razor strop and woodshed are now obsolete. The garage has replaced the woodshed, the electric razor has done away with the strop, and chores now amounts to mowing the lawn . . . and this can be done in a few minutes every week.

Impressionable youth absorbs thousands of wrong ideas from misguided adults and the result is juvenile delinquency. Every action of every person starts with a thought.

This typewriter that I'm writing on was a thought in a man's mind at one time. The house you are living in was a thought in an archetect's mind at one time.

These thoughts were placed in action by people with vision. The result is this typewriter and your house.

Juvenile delinquency starts the same way. The thought is planted in the youth's mind and he follows through with the action. The age old theme of cause and effect.

Felix has always been a good officer because he has recognized that every effect is backed by a cause. Many times he has gone to bat for a man, outrightly defended a man, who from all appearances was washed up and beyond help.

I know of one time he interceded with a member of Alcoholics Anonymous to call on a Spanish fellow being held in jail. I can hear Felix pleading the cause yet: "He's a good fellow, one of the finest fellows in the world when he's sober. Why don't you go in and talk to him. He doesn't want to cause all this trouble and if you can help him you will be helping a real nice guy."

The A.A. member pointed out that he would go to the fellow in jail asked for him. Felix persisted that the A.A. member not wait for the call, that a call wasn't necessary.

Because of Felix's continued insistance the incarcerated man had an A.A. visitor and has never taken a drink from that day . . . and this was nearly three years ago.

Felix will not be one to heap coals of blame entirely on the youth he works with. He knows that back of the action that brings boys and girls into juvenile court is adult negligence. He knows that his job will be more than assisting misguided youth on its path . . . . he knows he will be in for unhappy instances with parents who have selfishly put devotion to personal interests ahead of true love for their children.

This he can't change. But he can be the instrument that guides the way to right thinking for boys and girls who require his counsel.

His own code of morals is high. His patience and belief in human nature is astounding. He will go far in this job if left to his own procedure.

Mrs. Engle Has Time For Family

Mrs. D. John Engle's busy life as a homemaker leaves her plenty of time to enjoy the company of her children, Randy, and Kathy, only because she schedules her housework, as she will explain during a Farmers' conference at Victorville, Oct. 4. She is the wife of an Upland dairyman, and the daughter of Mrs. Francis Rogers.

Schedule Banishes Drudgery

Mrs. D. John Engle, homemaker, has taken the grief out of housework by scheduling two or three large jobs a day. She says this leaves her free afternoons to enjoy her family, especially the companship of her two small children.

"Housework used to be drudgery", she says. "I discovered that I was putting off the unpleasant jobs or trying to do too much at once. Now with planning I've discovered there's anticipation ahead. As I finish one job I look forward to next day's scheduled task."

She explained that this doesn't interfere with the daily vacuuming, dusting and other tasks that are a part of housework. Her new system keeps her on top of all household duties.

Mrs. Engle spoke on a panel comprised of two homemakers, two farmers and two editors of farm magazines at the Farmers' Conference in the Victor Valley High school, Victorville, at a dinner, Oct. 4.

Una Rentz Bethrothed

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Renfz, 781 W. Ninth St., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Una Fay, to Tedd Schilling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle T. Schilling of Redlands.

Miss Rentz was graduated from University of Redlands, continuing at Claremont Graduate school. Mr. Schilling, also a Redlands graduate, has done post graduate work at the University of Michigan.

They plan a late October wedding.

VFW Auxilliary To Celebrate Anniversary

Veterans of Foreign Wars, Old Baldy Post 285 Auxiliary, will hold a 25th anniversary, Nov. 8 in the clubhouse, Ontario.

A feature of the event will be presentation of 25 year pins to qualifying members.

Mrs. Joe Wiley is acting as general chairman and those assisting her will be Mmes. C. C. Sachs, Velma Cunningham, Mabel Brunton and Hazel Barnes.

George Galligher, post commander, was the speaker at the recent meeting when it was decided to change the meeting night from the second and fourth Thursday to the first and third Thursday.

Mrs. Dorothy Paat, auxiliary president announced a sewing meeting in the home of Mrs. Sachs, 187 E. Seventh St., Monday, 7 p.m.

Miss Hastings Prize Sewer

Harriet Hastings, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hastings, 239 N. Palm Ave., a finalist in last year's annual Cherry Pie bake, has distinguished herself again by winning first place in the senior division (14 through 17 years) Singer Sewing machine contest.

Garden Reception After Drewry, Cola Wedding

Altar bouquets of white gladioli, stock and larkspur and lighted tapers in tall candelabra decorated Temple Baptist church, Ontario, Sept. 22, for the marriage ceremony uniting Miss Shirley Yvonne Drewry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winford Drewry, 1411 N. First Ave., and John Raymond Cola of Fontana. Mr. Cola's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Frank Cola, 9189 Olive St., Fontana.

Dr. George Vouga performed the ceremony before 300 guests.

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore an exquisite gown fashioned with tier on tier of pleated nylon tulle falling into a brush train. The bodice and apron were of delicate lace. Her nylon tulle finger-tip veil were held in place by a headpiece trimmed with mother o'pearl sequins. She carried a white orchid and stephanotis arranged in a shower bouquet fastened to her Bible.

Mrs. John D. Wilson of Ontario, her sister, in pink, was the matron of honor and the bridesmaids, in blue, where Miss Connie Cola, Miss Anna Marie Cola and Mrs. Ray Dybsand. Dinner followed a reception held in the garde nof the bride's parents home when white wedding bells, streamers, pink rosebuds and ferns where used as decorations. The three tier cake, flanked with flowers and lighted candles, was reflected in the large mirror on which it was arranged.

Mrs. Drewry wore a beige sheath dress with dark brown accessories and Mrs. Cola, mother of the bridegroom, chose a mint green sheath dress with beige accessories. Both wore gardenia corsages. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Norma Shirley and Miss Donna Fay Anderson.

A TRIBUTE TO OUR WOMEN'S CLUBS!

Those groups of our local women who have organized themselves into Clubs, deserve the unstinted commendation of all of us! There are bridge clubs. There are self-improvement clubs. There are clubs whose charitable work among the needy exemplifies the finest traits of American womanhood. Most of these are home women, women with families and all the cares of home management. Yet they find time for richly-deserved recreation, as well as charitable activities. They are making the most of their busy lives . . . and we heartily applaud their feminine proclivities. Let's give them generous support whenever they request it!

New Fords Are Getting Wide Attention Here

New Fords are getting wide attention here.

Upland Motor Co. is today showing the 1957 models and Lance Lanceford and Jack Christensen, proprietors, are hosts to many people at their 310 E. Ninth St. location.

Ford's 1957 line introduces 19 entirely new body styles in five series and features three different body sizes on two redesigned chassis lengths.

The "hardtop convertible" styling formerly available only in — Ford's Victoria models set the trend for design of all the closed bodies in the new Fairlane 500 and Fairlane series. Stylists slimmed down the center pillars and top silhouettes of conventional two door and four door models, with the result that when the doors are closed, they have virtually the same outside appearance as the popular pillarless types, according to the owners.

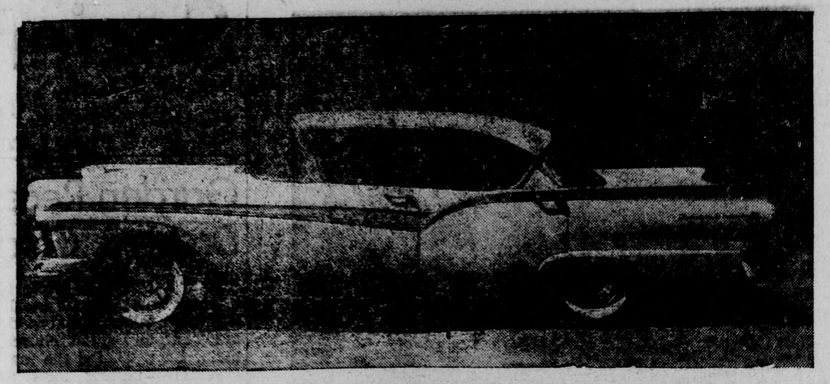

The biggest Ford body— more than nine inches longer and four inches lower than 1956 models — is available in the Fairlane and Fairlane 500 series.

There are five models in the Fairlane 500 series, which is Ford's top line. They are the thin pillar two-door Club Sedan, the thin pillar four-door Town Sedan, the two-door Club Victoria hardtops, and the Sunliner conhardtops, an dthe Sunliner convertible.

The Fairlane models include the thin pillar two-door Club Sedan, four-door Town Sedan and the two-door Club Victoria and four-door Town Victoria hardtops.

A separate body shell is used on the Custom and Custom 300 series models, which are more than three inches longer and three inches lower than comparable 1956 models.

New Fords Are Getting Wide Attention Here

A gala festive first showing of the new 1957 Ford is now in progress at Upland Motors, 310 E. Ninth St. The new models have a pronounced longer, lower leaner appearance.

From the road up, 1957 Fords are a complete departure from previous models. They are unveiled by Ford dealers in 19 body styles, of which this is the four door Victoria, a member of the new "Fairlane 500" series. Fairlane models are nine inches longer and four inches lower than their 1956 counterparts. Though the new models are lower, interior headroom is as great as last year, since the car's chassis and floor are re-designed for a lower center of gravity.

Advertising is the way to stimulate the public, and if the stimulus is sufficient, the result will be good business.

METRO COMPLETES 3 years OF SERVICE

Since October, 1953, it has been Metro's privilege and duty to transport millions of passengers over the streets, highways and freeways of Southern California. During this period, constant effort has been made to improve every operational phase of its 54 motor coach and street car lines. And the program to provide better transportation is a continuing one, geared to the challenge of changing times brought about by booming industrial expansion and residential growth.
Following are a few of the major benefits to Metro riders, which have been achieved in the past 3 years:
1 Increasing use of Freeways, as new mileage becomes available, to provide faster service.
2 Schedule revisions to meet changing passenger needs.
3 Rearrangements and extensions of lines in fast-growing areas, such as San Fernando Valley, to serve new territory.
4 New Division Service Terminals at Van Nuys, El Monte and West Hollywood, to better clean, service, and maintain equipment.
5 Addition of 265 new, air-suspension buses, with 23 more scheduled for 1956, totaling over $6,700,000, to provide new modern buses for added comfort.
6 Special service to such locations as Disneyland, Knott's Berry Farm, Hollywood Bowl, Santa Anita, Hollywood Park, Rose Bowl, and others.
Metro realizes that satisfactory transit is essential to Southern California, and can be obtained and maintained only by unceasing effort on our part, plus the cooperation of every member of the community.

Why the Oil Conservation Act will

KEEP GAS PRICES DOWN

● Why does Oil Conservation mean gasoline price protection for motorists?

● Why will Proposition 4, the Oil Conservation Act, help keep gas prices down?

—Because conservation of California's irreplaceable oil resources means stopping waste in the production of oil. It means getting every last drop of oil from the ground that it is possible to get by modern, scientific recovery methods.

—Because Proposition 4—by providing urgently needed Oil Conservation legislation—will double the production of oil from California fields.

—Because a plentiful supply of low-cost California oil is the best possible guarantee against drastic increases in the service-station price of gas.

IF YOU DRIVE A CAR, you are vitally concerned over the price of gasoline.

There are three pressures operating today in the direction of increased prices of gasoline. They are:

1. Greater expenditures by both the Federal and State governments for improved highways and freeways—financed by higher taxes on every gallon of gas you buy.

2. The Suez Canal crisis and Middle East unrest—foreshadowing demands on American oil to fill Western European needs.

3. The constantly increasing horsepower of automobile motors—requiring gasoline with higher and higher octane content.

The great, pocket-book importance of Proposition 4 to motorists is that it will provide an important counter-pressure to these rising price trends—by greatly increasing the supply of low-cost California crude oil.

TODAY, CALIFORNIA IS AN "OIL DEFICIT" STATE—we use more oil and gasoline than we produce.

Yet, today, only half the oil that can be recovered is being recovered—the other half remains in the ground, tragically wasted, for want of proper Oil Conservation procedures.

Proposition 4 provides the legal framework to make it possible to recover that presently wasted half of our producible oil resources. It will replace scarcity with plenty—adding a whopping 4 billion barrels to our known, recoverable oil reserves.

Best of all, the additional oil that will be produced from existing fields will be relatively inexpensive oil—because huge discovery, drilling and investment costs are not needed to produce it.

By providing a new, important source of low-cost California crude oil, Proposition 4 will help keep gasoline prices down!

● THESE COMPANIES SERVE THE MOTORIST: The major, integrated oil companies (with only one exception)—the companies that not only produce oil, but refine it and distribute it to the public—support Proposition 4. Their interest is in volume production and distribution of gasoline at reasonable prices.

Have you read "The Case of California's Disappearing Oil"? Ask for it at your service station or news stand.

● THESE COMPANIES DO NOT SERVE THE MOTORIST: On the other hand, the interest of the large-scale, multi-million dollar "independents" who are opposed to Proposition 4 is in higher prices. They are simply producers of crude oil and do not serve the motoring public. They are currently agitating for higher prices for crude oil.

● THE MOTORIST'S INTEREST, THE PUBLIC INTEREST, YOUR INTEREST — CLEARLY IS IN BOOSTING SUPPLIES OF LOW-COST CALIFORNIA OIL, AND KEEPING GASOLINE PRICES DOWN, BY ENACTMENT OF PROPOSITION 4.

Vote YES on Proposition 4

"If ever a measure for public decision by ballot could be called a motorists' measure, it is Proposition 4."—The Kingsburg Recorder.

New Industrial Projects Here Likely Due To Eastern Trip

Outlook Bright For Uplanders On Eastern Tour

Many eastern industrialists are today thinking about locating in the Upland district as the result of the visits of three local people.

Mayor E. Tweed Stone knows that pictures are very effective. He had a prepared pictorial presentation of the community, scenes taken from the air, also close-ups of schools, churches, recreational facilities and residential areas.

Ralph H. Miller, former president of the Upland chamber of commerce, was highly pleased with the reception given the local delegation and found that many easterners are well versed on this area. George Brannan, former pesident of the Upland Kiwanis club, expessed great optimism over the outlook for future development by selected industries.

"I believe Upland's pictorial presentation had a greater effect than that from any other city represented in the southland delegation," Mr. Stone said. "It was amazing to note the reaction when we showed them what we have in the way of an outstanding residential community and opportunity for residential facilities."

Mr. Stone said he found many "good prospects" who are wanting to leave the eastern seaboard and are interested in transferring to Southen California.

"As the result of our contacts, it is possible for us to follow up and definitely help choice industries to locate here," he said.

Mr. Miller said he had a list of 50 good prospects with whom he and his associate Mr. Brannan would correspond and conduct a "continuing sales program" to definitely bring them to this part of the southland.

All three men expressed the belief that many firms want to relocate and that it is just a matter of finding the right location for them.

The industrial tour was sponsored by southland agencies to enable cities to make contacts with eastern industrialists. The city of Upland financed Mr. Stone's trip and Mr. Miller and Mr. Brannan sponsored their own trip.

Experts Praise Upland College Reading Course

Upland College's "Improvement of Reading" course, offered for only a few years has received the enthusiastic endorsement of local teachers and administrators. Encouragement for the program has been heartily given by Harold Cook, superintendent of Upland Elementary schools, Homer Briggs, superintendent Ontario elementary schools; Wm. Walk, chairman Ontario School board, Mrs. Opal Hawes, curriculum consultant, Upland; Don Shattuck Upland school psychologist; Mrs. Frances L. Mitchell, principal of Baldy View school, and many others.

In commenting on the course Mrs. Hawes said, "Many of our teachers have benefited through taking the course during the past two years."

Mr. Shattuck said, "Anything that helps teachers understand the child's reading process will benefit the child directly. In the elementary level it has been very helpful."

"There are about as many answers to why Johnny can't read as there are teachers and experts in the field," John Z. Martin, president of Upland college said. "Rudolph Flesch blames the system of instruction, others blame the teachers, and some blame the parents. Johnny himself comes in for his share of the responsibility."

WORK NECESSARY

"Whatever the reason for the problem, it is certain that it will not be solved by charges and counter-charges. Hard work and experimentation are necessary, and every avenue of approach to a solution must be explored. The current concern over Johnny's reading habits is good if it will stimulate all those connected with his training to try and help him in every way possible."

Mr. Martin explained that colleges and universities which offer teacher education can perform a key function in this great task. They do not necessarily deal with Johnny directly, but they train the teachers who will in turn each have the opportunity to help thirty or forty Johnnies during every school term. The training of one teacher, then, may lead to better reading for a multiplied number of boys and girls over a period of a few years.

The "Improvement of Reading" course offered at Upland college is taught by Charles Booth who holds an M.A. degree from the University of California and who is a recognized authority in the field of educational psychology and reading improvement. He has spent many years studying the problems and is in a position to offer a course which is rich in remedial reading techniques.

The course is required of all education majors at the colleges but President Martin believes it is even more valuable to teachers who have been in the field for several years and who are able to bring their experience to bear on the course material and benefit from it.

TEACHERS IN DEMAND

An interesting sidelight of this situation is that in addition to active school teachers, other interested persons in the community are being attracted by this program. Mr. Marti nsaid that at present there is a demand in this community for private tutoring which cannot be met by the private tutors available. One former teacher who is now a housewife has repeatedly turned down requests to accept new private students because she has been booked to the limit of her time. As it is she is now tutoring students from as far away as Baldwin Park and Porterville.

She reports that one of her students, a freshman in high school, 15 years of age, was reading at second grade level. On the Wechsler Intelligence his verbal score was average, and his performance score was superior. In a frank talk with his tutor he told of the incidents of the early years of elementary school which brought on him the ridicule of his companions. From that time he refused to participate in any reading activities. He took special lessons from her, learning quickly in all aspects of reading. In six months he advanced to seventh grade in reading ability and was subsequently returned to his regular teacher. This case, apparently, is typical of many others.

Politicians are necessary in a country which permits the people to go to the polls.

As a preliminary to the start of the Upland Presbyterian church financial campaign, members of the campaign committee looked over the model of the proposed church facilities. The model was displayed at the "kick off" banquet in Upland college gymnasium Friday night.
